Flowers on the altars today are given to the Glory of Almighty God and in loving memory of Minnie O. Jefferson by her daughter, Mildred Burton and in loving memory of those who have labored in this church and passed on to their reward. Also in memory of departed loved ones by Mrs. Helen Fareira Bailey.

We welcome Father and Mrs. Caution to our congregation today. The Cautions are not strangers either to St. Barnabas Church or to the Philadelphia community. Fr. Caution was for many years Rector of St. Augustine's Church before it merged with the Covenant. The Rector has had a very long and rewarding association with the speaker for many years.

Members of the congregation are cordially invited to meet the Cautions at the Coffee Hour, under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which follows this service.

We salute our Organist and Choirmaster, John Dangerfield Cooper, S. T. B. for the brilliant work in the composition of the Mass for St. Barnabas Day. Mr. Cooper is a distinguished musician and has been playing in various Episcopal churches since his teenage years. We are grateful to have such a versatile and gifted person on our staff.

The Mass today is dedicated to all those persons who have labored to build, through the years, this parish, most notably we memorialize The Rev. E. Sydnor Thomas, Priest and Pastor of this congregation for forty-nine and a half years.

May the souls of the faithful, through the mercies of God, rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon them.

—Amen

ALL PARISH GUILDS are requested to give their future dates for 1968 to the parish secretary. This will enable us to get our parish calendar up to date and thereby be of better service to you.

A LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Parishioners:

Within the next few days you will be receiving a letter from the office in which you will be told something of the plans now being discussed by your Rector and Vestry with St. Luke's Church.

Please read this letter carefully when you get it as it will allay many fears and perhaps suspicions of exactly what has transpired to date. Above all we ask that you keep an open mind until such time that all facts have been presented to you.

Please keep next Sunday, February 4th in mind as the date for a special parish meeting which will follow the eleven o'clock Eucharist. We are asking members of the congregation not to discuss this situation with other people in the community at this time, as plans are not complete enough to enable us to make specific statements to anyone. May we have your cooperation. Come out next Sunday for the meeting at which time you will be able to hear and be given the opportunity to ask questions concerning our proposal.

Your Rector and Friend,
Father Poindexter

THE PROPOSED LITURGY which had been scheduled for Sunday the 4th has been moved back to Sunday the 11th so as to leave Sunday the 4th clear for the parish meeting. The Bishop of the Diocese has requested that the new Liturgy be in continued use at at least one service on Sundays in all parish churches for the next three year trial period. Here at St. Barnabas' we will follow the Bishop's directives and use this service at one of the various services on Sundays beginning February 11th. We will be asking for your constructive criticism of this trial usage. Better still, it would be most helpful to me in interpreting your opinions to the Bishop, if you would simply write your criticisms and/or suggestions and hand them in to me.

FOR THE BENEFIT of those who remember the Rt. Rev. Wallace E. Conklin when he was Rector of St. Luke's Parish, this letter is reproduced. The letter was sent to Father Hill on January 29, 1968.

Dear Father:

Thank you for sending me the parish letter regarding the union of St. Barnabas' with St. Luke's. I hope the people will eagerly accept the opportunity.

Dr. Upjohn and Father E. Sydnor Thomas will be rejoicing, as do I. Both Dr. Upjohn and I looked after St. Barnabas' with loving concern and assisted St. Barnabas' in its growth and ministry. Father E. Sydnor Thomas was our dear friend and brother Priest. It was my privilege to continue having Archdeacon Baskerville preach at St. Luke's each year - finally even at the eleven o'clock service - which in those days was a bold thing to do. I was sure St. Luke's faith was truly catholic enough to accept this. Later on we had St. Barnabas' choir sing a Passion Cantata at St. Luke's and the church each year was filled with a bi-racial congregation.

I gave my altar from my farm chapel to St. Barnabas' in memory of the two sisters (Sister Lela and Sister Bertha) at St. Barnabas'. I hope we can some time record their ministry in a suitable memorial at St. Luke's. Perhaps the Altar can be used at some Mission.

I hope to see many of my devoted friends of St. Barnabas' when I come to St. Luke's in October.

This is the real thing. I rejoice that you are leading and with good support of the Vestry, some of whom I am proud are my spiritual children.

Faithfully and with love in our Blessed Lord, Wallace E. Conklin, Bishop
